

INTRODUCTION

WHY CHOOSE KUST?

University is the beginning of a new phase in many young people's lives and Kunming University of Science and Technology (KUST) provides a supportive environment to assist with this transition.

Kunming, the stunning capital city of Yunnan province in southwest of China, is an attractive, safe, and growing city with a pristine environment and mild spring-like weather all the year round. It's the perfect place where brilliant, committed, creative people come together to learn, work and live.

ABOUT

KUST ranks among top 100 universities in China and is the largest and the only polytechnic university in Yunnan province. The university consists of four campuses including Chenggong, Lianhua, Xinying and Songming all located in Kunming and covering a total area of 343 (Songming campus is not concluded) hectares.

Our 36 faculties (schools, faculties, and research institutes) in a wide variety of disciplines—engineering, science, management, economics, medicine, law, arts, philosophy, agriculture, education, and more — provide students with an excellent academic experience in and out of the classroom.

Over 300 Bachelor's, Master's and Doctoral programs will prepare students for their personal and professional success.

KUST is a research-intensive university with an outstanding reputation for its strong links with industries in China and around the globe. Its wide recognition in research helps attract and retain exceptional faculty, and enhances experiential learning and student research opportunities.

The new knowledge produced from our cutting-edge research benefits communities locally and throughout the world and helps society move into the future.
